Securosys SA is a dynamic, internationally oriented company with a demanding clientele in the field of information security. Our authentication and encryption solutions offer uncompromising protection against attacks on the digital data of our customers. Our products and services, developed and manufactured in Switzerland, are used by financial institutions (both traditional Fintech and modern blockchain systems) and other organizations.

Securosys offers attractive jobs with a lot of personal responsibility and strong networking. Flexible, eager to learn professionals with initiative and intercultural competence are very welcome in our environment.

We are looking to expand our development team with an experienced software developer, with a key focus on Java skills and equally good understanding of other programming environments like Unix /C/C++. Work in a cross-functional development team with skill sets ranging from hardware, middleware up to application framework design.

Java Software Engineer

Responsibilities:

- Design and development of APIs, frameworks and tools in Java
- Opportunity to influence and impact the architecture, standards, and design of key product initiatives for applications in Java services
- Contribute within a team of top engineers
- Work in a dynamic, fast-paced, Agile team environment

Requirements:

- 5+ years of commercial software development
- MS/BS in Computer Science or computer engineering or equivalent field
- Knowledgeable of commercial software development, proficient in developing multi-tier solutions
- Professional Java development experience, Java and typical frameworks
- Solid understanding of cryptographic primitives and protocols highly desirable

Technical experience includes:

- Extensive Java n-tier application experience
- Strong SQL skills with considerable experience in Oracle or SQL Server
- Knowledge of XML/XSL
- Experience with Tomcat, JBoss, Weblogic or Websphere
- Strong with OO design and development
- Solid grasp of concepts and algorithms
- Quality oriented working style

Interested? Accept this challenge to work in a high-tech company with flat hierarchies, experienced management and short decision paths! We offer you an attractive working environment at com.west in Zurich, which leaves you plenty of room for development in a motivated and small team.

Please send us your documents by e-mail to jobs@securosys.ch